

MEETING AGENDA

Towards a Cure for Advanced Stage Ovarian Carcinoma

The Banbury Center, Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory, New York, USA
October 21-23, 2018

This meeting was funded by Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance with additional funding from ImmunoGen and Clovis Oncology

Organizers:

Jeffrey Boyd, Florida International University
Sarah DeFeo, Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance
Douglas Levine, New York University
Audra Moran, Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance

This Banbury Center meeting brought together a multidisciplinary group of thought leaders in the fields of ovarian cancer biology, genetics, epidemiology, surgery, and therapy in order to discuss existing data and to develop strategies that may provide optimal outcomes for the greatest proportion of ovarian cancer patients. In addition, strategies for exporting such a model(s) outside the context of major academic cancer centers will be explored.
